

The Social Hall Avenue Building, located in downtown Salt Lake City, Utah utilizes a USG 1250 Concrete Filled Raised Access Floor Panel and Rigid Grid Understructure throughout the 68,000 square foot building.

For added security purposes, the Internal Revenue Service chose to corner lock the Panels down.

Social Hall Avenue

Salt Lake City, Utah

Building Owner: Internal Revenue Service

Architect: MHTN Architects

General Contractor: Layton Construction

Size of Installation: 68,000 square feet

Product: Raised Access Flooring and Plug & Play Electrical